MY NAME IS FAUSTINE AMIRI AND I am 15 years old. I live with my parents in our home in Mungere Village. I love the color orange and my favorite food is rice and ugali. My dream is to play football for Chelsea or become a pilot - or both!

I want to travel the world and visit places like England and the United States to see how people live differently than in Tanzania. The only way I think I can do this is through a good education, which is why I'm excited I was chosen to join The Mungere School. Without it, my family could not afford to send me to high school. I like Mungere because we have the best teachers from around the world and from Tanzania who make learning fun, challenge us in all subjects and help us be good competitors both inside and outside the classroom.
